The Frankfort Roundabout

FRANKFORT, DECEMBER 31, 1898.

"A Happy Time at the Stewart Home."

On last Saturday evening the annual entertainment for the children at the Stewart Home took place. The chapel was decorated in the usual Xmas decorations, cedar, mistletoe and holly, whilst the tree (an exceptionally beautiful one), dressed in tinsel and snow flake, and brilliantly illuminated, was planted immediately in front of the stage, laden with every conceivable toy and lovely presents for each and every child. Many of the children were remembered by their loved ones at home, and those who have no homes were made none the less happy.

Each child came into the chapel all excitement to see what "Santa Claus" had put on the tree for them, and after being told by the Superintendent, Dr. J. P. Stewart, in his ever gentle and kind manner, to come up and take a good look before it was spoiled, they rushed forward—then back to their seats, eager to see what their gifts would be.

"Glory to God in the Highest," was played on the organ by the young and estimable wife of Dr. J. P. Stewart, when the whole school sang. Following this, were recitations, in which many of the smaller children took part, acquitting themselves in a surprising manner. Then, "Arise ye Pilgrims" was sung, whereupon, the distribution of presents began, and as each one's name was called their faces beamed with happiness.

Upon the whole it was a delightful evening for the children and grown folks, and one in which all felt amply paid for every effort made in that direction.

After a "social" in the chapel all left carrying their bags of candy and arms full of gifts, to the beautiful Quadrangle, brilliantly lighted and prepared for the "fire works." Then to rest—no doubt to dream of who this Santa Claus is, who is so good to them.

TRADE + BOOMING

At Ferd Jacobs'. Great rush to our Slaughter - Sale

OF
Clothing, Dry Goods, Boots and Shoes, Hats, Caps, Ladies' and Gents'

Furnishing Goods, Trunks, Valises, Ladies Cloaks and Capes in Good Assortment. Also a Large assortment of Xmas Novelties and Toys.

As my room must be vacated by JANUARY 1ST, or about that time, and in order to do so I have made up my mind to sell everything in the house if low prices will move them. Never in your life did you buy goods as cheap as you can buy them at the present time. My stock is very large and must positively be sold, and in order to get rid of them I have made the prices to suit the people and the hard times.

I will not quote any prices, but to convince you that I mean just what I say, price goods elsewhere, and then get my prices, and if you do not admit that you are saving money I will make you a present of the items referred to. This is no scheme, but simply a fact that I must give up this store-room about January 1st, and if you don't call to see me before purchasing elsewhere you will regret it as long as you live. So come and be convinced, as the proof of the pudding is in the eating.

We also have a large stock of FLOOR OILCLOTH, TABLE OILCLOTH, COMFORTS and BLANKETS to almost give away.

Caned.

Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Superintendent of our City Schools, has always taken an interest in the County Teachers' Association, and has rendered very valuable assistance ever since he came to the city to reside.

The teachers of the county concluded they would show their appreciation in substantial form, and accordingly sent him a handsome and valuable gold headed cane on Saturday. The head is elegantly chased and bears this inscription: Presented to Prof. McHenry Rhoads by the Teachers of Franklin County, Dec. 25, 1898.

The cane itself is of ebony and beautifully polished.

The present is an appropriate one and was bestowed upon a gentleman who has won his way, by earnest and honest work, into the esteem and hearts of the people generally.

The following is the corresponding:

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 24, 1898.
Prof. McHenry Rhoads, Superintendent of the Public Schools of Frankfort, Ky.:

MY DEAR SIR:—Highly appreciating your ability as a teacher, your integrity as a gentleman, your worth as a citizen, and realizing how devoted you have been in the cause of culture and progress, we present to you this cane as a token of our high admiration and esteem.

As you lean upon this staff, in the coming years, we hope you will be reminded of the fact that nearly all your life you have been the ardent supporter of the Public Schools of our State, and when your life's journey has ended, this staff will remain as an evidence of the love and affection which the Franklin county teachers have for you.

May you live long and continue the good work in which you are now engaged.

Truly your friends,
LUCY PATTIE, C. S. S.

EMMA PLUMMER,

FRANKFORT, KY., Dec. 24, 1898.
Miss Lucy Pattie, C. S. S., and Teachers of Franklin County:

The elegant cane, which you have been pleased to present me, is accepted, with feelings of the deepest gratitude to those who gave it. Your expressions of good wishes and commendatory words, honor me above my deserts and cause me to wish myself worthy of them. To live in the hearts and affections of his friends is the greatest pleasure one can wish, and if my feeble efforts, earnestly given to the sacred work of guiding our youth into ways of greater intellectual and moral wisdom, have caused even the least of these to seek that better way, I shall feel amply rewarded. I thank you sincerely for this mark of respect and esteem, and pray heaven's richest blessings upon your labors of love and duty in training our boys and girls for the responsible duties of a useful life.

Very truly your friend,
MCHENRY RHOADS.
